WIRES RENDERED USELESS.

A Blaze in the Bell Telephone Office.

Last night, about 9:45 o'clock, an alarm was rung in for a fire supposed to be in the post office. The department responded promptly, and when the firemen reached Merchant street a dense volume of smoke was seen coming from a door leading to the operating room of the Bell Telephone Co. Two men immediately rushed upstairs with extinguishers on their backs and extinguished a blaze that might have been disastrous. The trouble was caused by the insulation on a wire igniting. The fire rapidly spread from wire to wire until the covering on several hundred wires was ablaze. The fire will interfere with the service of the company, but it is expected that before nightfall the lines will be working again.

RECEPTION AT FUNAHOU.

A Social Farewell to Retiring Teachers.

The reception given last night by President and Mrs. F. A. Hosmer at Oahu college to the retiring teachers and members of the senior class was a most brilliant affair. The college grounds were lighted up with torches, while the parlors of the main hall were resplendent within. A large number of people were present, while not a few were kept away by the rain, which poured during the early part of the evening.

For three solid hours the guests thronged in the parlors to congratulate the college faculty and the senior class. It was the general opinion of those present that the walls of Oahu college never before contained such a large number of society people. At one corner of the parlor was placed a large and beautiful portrait of the late Gen. S. C. Armstrong. It was a very excellent likeness of that great man, and was greatly admired. It was a most pleasing sight to see small groups here and there conversing socially.

In the dining hall were placed small tables where the guests were served with ice cream, sherbet and cakes.

After spending a most enjoyable evening with Mr. and Mrs. Hosmer, the guests began to depart at a late hour, the affair closing up at eleven o'clock.

The guests went away with pleasant recollections of the good time they spent with the faculty of Oahu college.

Among those present were Chief Justice and Mrs. A. F. Judd, the Misses Judd, Justice W. F. Frear, Judge H. E. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall, Rev. S. L. Desha, Mrs. G.
